

I support strong net neutrality backed by Title II oversight of ISPs. Please be for the average citizen and not for large corporations. Not everything needs to bend toward those that can pay and manipulate the system. What about my freedom to choose what and how I experience the internet?